

SWOSU BSA Plans Dress to Impress Dance on November 18

11.09.2011

The Southwestern Oklahoma State University Black Student Association will host its annual BSA Bash on Friday, November 18, on the Weatherford campus.

The dance will be held from 9 p.m. until 2 a.m. with the theme “Dress to Impress.” The event will be held around the rock wall in the SWOSU Wellness Center. The dance has a $3 price of admission with profits benefiting BSA’s philanthropic workings.

According to BSA President Kasey McFalls, all students are invited to attend, but are required to have a valid SWOSU I.D.

For more information, contact McFalls at mcfallsk@student.swosu.edu.