

High School Students Win $500 Scholarships at SWOSU Saturday

11.07.2013

These high school students won $500 scholarships from Southwestern Oklahoma State University at the recent SWOSU Saturday held in Weatherford. SWOSU Saturday, which attracted 434 students/parents/family members, gives high school juniors/seniors as well as college transfer students an opportunity to preview the SWOSU campus. Winners were (second from left): Micah Diller, Yukon; Tyler Morton, Comanche; Quyntin Lord, Shattuck; and Kathryn Rodgers, Hydro-Eakly. With the students are (left) SWOSU Student Ambassador Cord Gothard and Todd Boyd, director of admissions and recruitment.
