

SWOSU Medical Professions Club Hears from Program Representatives

11.24.2009

The SWOSU Medical Professions Club recently hosted speakers representing the fields of physical therapy, physical therapy assistant, occupational therapy and radiation therapy during a program on the Weatherford campus. Speakers included (left to right) Lacy Knox and Corri DeMott from the OU Health Science Center physical therapy program; Sharon Lawrence, a physical therapy assistant at Clinton Integris Hospital and current SWOSU student; SWOSU graduate Renee Brown from the OU Health Science Center physical therapy program on the Tulsa campus; and SWOSU graduate Leslie (Igo) Waldrop from the OU Health Science Center radiation therapy program.