

Students Can Win a Wii at Thursday's Basketball Games

12.03.2007

SWOSU students who attend Thursday (Dec. 6) night's basketball games on the Weatherford campus will have a chance to win a Nintendo Wii.

The Collegiate Activities Board is giving away the Wii at halftime of the men's basketball game at 8 p.m. in Rankin Williams Fieldhouse. Sarah Webb of CAB said students who wear their Bulldawg Nation/Rankin Rowdies t-shirt will receive two tickets for attending the 6 p.m. women's contest and another ticket at the men's contest.

The men's contest will feature the Lone Star Conference's only unbeaten teams. SWOSU with its perfect 7-0 record will host Texas A & M-Kingsville (5-0) to see which team will become the conference's only unbeaten squad. SWOSU women are 3-3, while Texas A & M-Kingsville is 3-4.
