

SWOSU COP Raises Funds to Help Pharmacy Student

12.09.2013

Southwestern Oklahoma State University student Robby Simpson (second from left) in Weatherford was recently presented with money cards totaling $1,021 from SWOSU College of Pharmacy (COP) students, faculty and staff to help with expenses after Simpson's home burned in November. Tim Reid (middle), president of Kappa Psi fraternity, organized an effort to collect monetary gifts for the Simpson family. Also pictured are (from left) student Tanner Crandell, SWOSU COP Associate Dean Dr. David Ralph and SWOSU COP Dean Dr. Dennis Thompson.
