

SWOSU HIM Students Selling Cinnamon Rolls to Help Finance Conference Trip

12.10.2013

Southwestern Oklahoma State University's Health Information Management (HIM) program students are selling cinnamon rolls for the holiday season.

The baked goods from an Okarche bakery (Tower Café) will act as a fundraiser to support SWOSU HIM students going to the American Health Information Management Association Conference in San Diego next fall.

Goods available are: large cinnamon rolls, $13 per dozen; mini cinnamon rolls, $15 per dozen; and dinner rolls $15 per dozen.

Orders and money are due January 14, 2014, and baked goods will be distributed the following week. Anyone interested in supporting the SWOSU HIM fundraiser, contact Shyanne Pullum at 580.09.2283, pullums@student.swosu.edu or the HIM office at 580.774.3249.
