Frivolous Reflections

by Alita Pirkopf

A dragonfly on iridescent wings, I could take life lightly, dropping by for earth's pleasures, departing at will. I would skim pond surfaces, swoop by for dinner, flirt face to face with swift minnows.
I would kiss and flee and fly, not gaze, Narcissus-like, too long at myself.
I might enjoy simpler reflections, the beauty of iridescence.
