DOROTHY L SAYERS AT FIFTY

(For Nancy-Lou Patterson)

O felix culpa, those German rockets falling, which drove me like a badger underground,
for there I read of Dante’s ancient haulling-- down cave, up hill, from planet to planet bound;
    what narrative pace! what humour light, delightful!
what meat within that paper shell is found!-- with woes and glories of this world it’s quite full.
    Cunizza I pray I am, and hope to be;
and may this island, from all its lessons frightful of these four years, surviving, in its degree
    then emulate the Kingdom Paradisal, where artists serve the work in artistry-- as Dante did; as craftsmen must, a-whistle;
better the Celestial Rose, than Phlegethon’s thistle.
