EDITORIAL

This year The Mythopoeic Society will observe the anniversary of its tenth birthday. One of the ways planned to commemorate the Society's first decade is to make the September 1977 issue of Mythlore a 10th Anniversary issue. Part of the issue will be devoted to the Society's history in words and pictures. I recognize the dangerous excesses of being self-congratulatory (as a Society or an individual), but think it might be fitting if you would like to write short pieces on what the Society has and does mean to you, and how it has influenced your perceptions and life. I invite other suggestions on how Mythlore might help celebrate the Society's 10th Anniversary, as well as for the birthday itself.
