Once Queen Susan

Susan can you remember the times
When we were in another world
And time did swirl?

You were a woman of honor, most high
Bow and horn at your side drawn
At Peter's battle on the lawn!

Susan can you remember the times
When we sat in Cair Paravel's Hall
Ruling wise and fair, the great and the small?

You were a woman of the lion, the light
One cleaned in a holy act
Healed by a table cracked!

Susan can you remember the times
Or is Narnia fading
And the world invading?

My soul cries for you in the night
Did Aslan cease to roar?
Did you close the wardrobe door?

Susan can you remember the times
When spring had no end,
Or is it winter again?

Now a woman of worldly eyes
Turned away from him,
Never up and never in!
