On Falling for Animated Females

by Randy W. Oakes

The phantom souls of these Japanese vixens vex my imagination.
Those bodies in fine-tipped clarity forever evade me in my cursed dimensional world.
Athletic and feisty in their sinewy inking they keep me up at night drawing myself, creating some insinuating presence to win them by evading lasers and mastering mazes, leaping the abyss of my life mired in post-Euclidean solitude.
