The Form

We are never prepared for the multiple I.V.:
Nine tubes sprouting from the labyrinthine
Form; a glued pallor on the face,

The frown that even will will not erase;
A once-firm fist that does not close,
Hold cloth or fabled string; the crinkled mold

Of body into bedding; assisted turning
When the figure cannot; and churning
In a stomach which refuses food,

Heaves even fresh water, could
Not use for sun or moon the path
Patterned for waste, unless in aftermath.
