Crazy Like a Fox

Carl Stanislaus

Grandpa thinks he is the boy
He was in younger days.
Of course he's lost his hair and teeth,
And changed in other ways.

He still likes being Santa Claus,
And playing the Easter Bunny.
He frolics at the beach
When the days are sunny!

But he joined the Senior Citizens,
When they called him on the phone,
And he didn't kick and scream
When we put him in the Home.

He says, "Don't call me crazy,
If I start acting funny,
Just treat me kind and gentle,
Or you won't inherit my money!"
