GRANDPARENTS

TRAV

by Priscilla Johnson

Carter Hall tobacco in a lit-unlit pipe

Blue Chevrolet pick-ups

Trousers worn three, five,
seven days in a row

Proprietor of The Store

Black Angus cattle

Well-worn mud-stained boots sitting by the door

A cowboy hat—

Sweat stained and well worn

Faded blue eyes that laughed at me

My children's grandfather

An old cowboy horse hater

My friend ■

Illustration by Scott Otipoby

PRISCILLA JOHNSON will finish a B. A. in English Education degree at SOSU this semester.

Her immediate goals are to teach and write.
