CHASING DREAMS

Book Review
by Leroy Thomas

One of WESTVIEW's leading, most cherished contributors— Margie Snowden North of Erick— has endured and has been able to get a book published under contract with Evans Publications of Perkins, Oklahoma.

TO CHASE A DREAM, Margie's piece of autobiographical fiction about a family of tenant farmers, is set in Tecumseh first and then in Western Oklahoma— Erick— in the 1940's and 1950's. The family name used is Eason, but the plight of the Easons contains many thinly veiled references to the Snowdens, the author's family.

Publisher Bob Evans says, "It is the type of book to be read both with a smile and an occasional tear--tears of sadness and joy. Most of those who have worked with the manuscript say they are faced with a touch of deja vu as they relate so easily to the plight of the Eason family."

Those who are interested in superior writing and in Western Oklahoma nostalgia will do well to buy Margie Snowden North's TO CHASE A DREAM. For an autographed copy, send $18.00 ($14.95 plus tax and postage) to the author (Route 1, Box 87; Erick, OK 73645). It will be a wisely spent $18.00.
