Orchestration

By V. N. Severs

The wind played a concert last night.
It whooshed around the corners,
Whispered in the tree tops.
Whooshing, whispering, whistling wind.

Then

In angry crescendo buffeted the windows,
And all the while, murmuring like
Old ladies in a concert box,
Each part separate and yet as one whole,
Whistling pianissimo under the eaves.

Now FORTISSIMO!

Wooing, whistling, whooshing wind.
Whistling, whispering, whooshing wind.
