"THE ONE HORSE TOWN"

I'm glad I live in a one-horse town,
In a little old one-horse town,
For the folk down there are the finest folks
You can find for miles around!
When you walk down the street it's a "howdy-do,"
With a smile or a pat on the back,
And it's fun we have just sittin' around
Listening to some "wise-guy's crack!"

The folks down there aren't famous folks,
Not rich, too smart, nor grand,
But they stand by a fellow when he needs it most,
And they lend a helping hand
Your troubles are never your own, down there,
In that little old one-horse town,
There's always someone willing to share
And to give you a lift when you're down.

If I should die in some far-away place
Many miles from the home I know,
Please send me back o'er the long, long road,
To my one-horse town let me go,
For my old friends there will mourn over me
And sort of miss my being around.
Let me rest by the side of my loved ones there
In that little old one-horse town.
